Gallery Reflection Tour Peer-partner form 2014-2015

Guide touring:
Peer-partner:
Date of tour:
Total tour Participants:	Adults:	Students	Children
Tour topic:
Theme:

Introduced yourself to the group Gave a general introduction to the museum, explained the one-foot policy and other museum rules yes in Mas welcoming, friendly and courteous to the participants throughout the tour Stood so that they did not obscure the artwork or have their back to any participants and modeled the one-foot rule Made eye contact with the members of the group Spoke clearly and audibly, with confidence and enthusiasm Clearly stated the theme and reinforced it throughout the tour Used transitions to tie the tour together and move smoothly from stop to stop The content and vocabulary was age - and audience-appropriate Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	UT ARIA
Gave a general introduction to the museum, explained the one-foot policy and other museum rules yes now was welcoming, friendly and courteous to the participants throughout the tour yes now so that they did not obscure the artwork or have their back to any participants and modeled the one-foot rule yes now specified with the members of the group yes now specified with the members of the group yes now specified with the members of the group yes now specified with the members of the group yes now specified the theme and reinforced it throughout the tour yes now specified with the members of the group yes now specified with the specified with the specified time yes now specified time to the tour together and move smoothly from stop to stop yes now specified time yes now specified with the specified time yes now specifi	Arrived early and started the tour on time	yes	no
Was welcoming, friendly and courteous to the participants throughout the tour Stood so that they did not obscure the artwork or have their back to any participants and modeled the one-foot rule Made eye contact with the members of the group Spoke clearly and audibly, with confidence and enthusiasm Clearly stated the theme and reinforced it throughout the tour Used transitions to tie the tour together and move smoothly from stop to stop The content and vocabulary was age - and audience-appropriate Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Peresented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes n Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Introduced yourself to the group	yes	no
Stood so that they did not obscure the artwork or have their back to any participants and modeled the one-foot rule Made eye contact with the members of the group Spoke clearly and audibly, with confidence and enthusiasm Clearly stated the theme and reinforced it throughout the tour Used transitions to tie the tour together and move smoothly from stop to stop The content and vocabulary was age - and audience-appropriate Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Gave a general introduction to the museum, explained the one-foot policy and other museum rules		no
the one-foot rule Made eye contact with the members of the group Spoke clearly and audibly, with confidence and enthusiasm Clearly stated the theme and reinforced it throughout the tour Used transitions to tie the tour together and move smoothly from stop to stop The content and vocabulary was age - and audience-appropriate Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Yes now allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes not allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Was welcoming, friendly and courteous to the participants throughout the tour		no
Spoke clearly and audibly, with confidence and enthusiasm Clearly stated the theme and reinforced it throughout the tour Used transitions to tie the tour together and move smoothly from stop to stop The content and vocabulary was age - and audience-appropriate Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes not selection in the specified time	Stood so that they did not obscure the artwork or have their back to any participants and modeled the one-foot rule	yes	no
Clearly stated the theme and reinforced it throughout the tour Used transitions to tie the tour together and move smoothly from stop to stop The content and vocabulary was age - and audience-appropriate Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Yes not the participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Made eye contact with the members of the group	yes	no
Used transitions to tie the tour together and move smoothly from stop to stop The content and vocabulary was age - and audience-appropriate Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Spoke clearly and audibly, with confidence and enthusiasm	yes	no
The content and vocabulary was age - and audience-appropriate Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Clearly stated the theme and reinforced it throughout the tour	yes	no
Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Used transitions to tie the tour together and move smoothly from stop to stop	yes	no
Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?") Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes not allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	The content and vocabulary was age - and audience-appropriate	yes	no
Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes not allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Used open-ended questions to encourage participants to look, engage and respond	yes	no
Paraphrased participants' responses Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes not a specified time yes not a specified time yes not a specified time	Asked follow-up questions (e.g. "What do you see that makes you say that?")	yes	no
Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes not applied to the same gallery yes not applied to the tour in the specified time yes not applied to the same gallery	Allowed time for looking In silence and waited for responses	yes	no
Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes notes.	Paraphrased participants' responses	yes	no
Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes notes.	Presented accurate information in an organized and culturally sensitive fashion	yes	no
Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation Yes not allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes not allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Helped participants relate artworks to their personal life experiences	yes	no
Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery yes not produced the tour in the specified time yes not produced the tour in the specified time yes not produced the tour in the specified time	Compared and contrasted objects and put them into context	yes	no
Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation yes not allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes not allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	Varied the pace of the tour, integrating inquiry, information, props, and visual aids	yes	no
Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time yes n	Exhibited flexibility in object selection when other tour groups were in the same gallery	yes	no
	Demonstrated familiarity with terms and comfortable with pronunciation	yes	no
Provided a conclusion that summarized key ideas and encouraged further exploration yes n	Allotted time well and completed the tour in the specified time	yes	no
	Provided a conclusion that summarized key ideas and encouraged further exploration	yes	no

Questions for reflection. Tour partners discuss and complete together.

What aspects of the tour went particularly well today? Why do you think these were successful?

What were the challenges on this tour? Why do you think these aspects were difficult?

At what object on the tour do you think the group was most engaged? What about the discussion or interaction made this stop work well?
At what object on the tour do you think the group was least engaged? What about the discussion or interaction made this stop less engaging?
What is the take-away from this process that you will apply to future tours?
Other
Thank you for completing this review! Please, return a copy to Interpretation & Participatory Spaces.
	October 2014			