00:22:13 Diana Beutner: Is Polaris on view now? Going on view soon?
00:23:12 Regina Sindalovsky: should we better concentrate on the wide possibilities for the children - the whole world is open, and it is up to them what they do to it 00:27:04 Kris Berggren she/her: I found a clip of him singing too -

could be fun to use in a slide show
00:27:19 Kara: Great idea, Kris!
00:29:30 Laurie Fontaine Junker: There's a current trend around aura photography. I had it done last year!
00:29:34 Teresa Luterbach: I can't quite get over his sideburns
00:33:27 Barb & Paul: I saw it on view a couple of weeks ago!
00:33:47 Kris Berggren she/her: I thought a good question would be "what might be different today if you could go to this concert?" (nobody is wearing masks!)
00:35:29 Kristin Hanneman: what year was it painted?
00:36:06 Kara: Mid-1900s
00:36:48 Kara: I think their mom in in the upper right!
00:39:31 jennifercasper: It will be fun to talk about perspective or lack of and also the words on the drum say "Minnesota" 00:41:34 Teresa Luterbach: Where did you say the artist is from? MN?
00:43:40 The Folkestads: How big is it?
00:44:20 Kristin Hanneman: so similar to the fish

00:46:41 Diana Beutner: Why was Sunburst taken out of the set?
00:46:44 Lyn: Thank you!!
00:46:48 Barb & Paul: how do you pronounce the name?
00:47:12 Teresa Luterbach: pronunciation of words after Seated...
00:47:21 jennifercasper: how big is guanyin?
00:49:03 Kris Berggren she/her: is Guanyin a deity? Is it considered sacred?
00:50:38 Kris Berggren she/her: thanks amanda 00:55:10 Arna Yetter: So we will be assigned AAG tours even if we didn't sign up to do virtual tours?
00:55:44 Diana Beutner: Is there a list of who has signed up to do virtual tours? Just in case we need to find substitutes.
00:56:56 jennifercasper: is there a day you are more short of people?
01:00:32 Barb & Paul: will schools pay anything for the recorded tours? actually do they pay for the virtual tours?
01:00:46 Kara: No, all tours are free for schools.
01:04:44 Lyn: Are picture persons showing these to the school kids
prior to AAG virtual tour??
01:05:45 Loreen Fripp: Does the school choose the time length of their tour?
01:06:30 Judy ericksen: who determines the length of tour
01:07:13 Barb & Paul: do the children see the art ahead of time for the theme tours?
01:08:00 Kris Berggren she/her: what is the main difference between these tours and AA tours?
01:08:42 Lyn: Are we allowed to show addition art if school kids have had picture person?
01:08:54 Holly Stoerker: are kids at home distance learning, in classroom, or both?

01:09:15 Teresa Luterbach: Do you foresee AA guides doing these other tour topics in the future when we are back at Mia?

01:10:00 Lyn: videos included??

01:10:41 Deb's iPad: Will students see the same AA presentation from both Picture Person and AAG?

01:10:49 jennifercasper: For theme tours, can we keep the same style as AA? for example VTS, focusing more on exploring the art rather than memorizing stats, etc

01:11:37 The Folkestads: .

01:11:44 The Folkestads: ...

01:12:08 Barb & Paul: are the theme turs brand new, or have we always had them? if so, who did them before?

01:12:09 The

Folkestads:

01:12:25 The Folkestads: sorry my folder was on the keyboard!

01:12:40 Barb & Paul: soory for my typo!

01:14:02 Carolyn Silverstein: Are the theme tour objects different from the objects in our AAG museum tours? Will they be preceded by a presentation by Picture People?

01:14:07 alison: if a school was signed up for AAG but then cancelled due to fear of picture people coming into the school could they sign up for an online picture tour like this from Amanda?

01:19:16 Lyn: can anyone watch the tour as it is going??

01:20:30 Lyn: are these going to be recorded??

01:21:20 Teresa Luterbach: Thank you to all staff for the loads of work it must have been to get all of the virtual tours set up!

01:21:27 Barb & Paul: when is the next tour after my Oct 22 tour?

01:21:37 Lyn: thank you!

01:24:12 Amanda Lesnikowski: Alison, let's connect!
